

CODA COLLEGE ORCHESTRA DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION

CODA 2023 NATIONAL CONFERENCE JANUARY 26-28, 2023

Jacksonville University
Jacksonville, Florida

Guest Orchestra Application

Priority will be given to Applications received by Friday, April 15th, 2022

Applications will be assessed on:

- Performance quality reflected by the submitted recording(s)
- Ensemble category (Please see information below*)
- Membership status of the conductor
- Quality of proposed program
- Preference given to first-time national conference performances

Please note:

Conductor must be an active member of CODA at the time of application, and agree to register for the conference during which the performance would occur. Preference will be given to conductors who have attended at least one CODA national conference in the last three years.

Proposed programs for the conference performance must be submitted with the application. The proposed program should include at least one new or seldom -performed historical work. We realize programs may need to change between the application and the performance, but your proposed program should reflect your intentions as accurately as possible.

Ensemble Category:

* CODA members work in diverse institutions and conduct ensembles within a wide variety of circumstances. In order to better reflect that diversity, the selection committee will choose guest orchestras representing two categories within our membership, large and small schools/music programs. An orchestra representing the smaller school/music program category will be selected for one of the two available performance slots and an orchestra from the larger school category will be selected for the other.

Application Instructions:

Email James Holleman, CODA president elect, jholleman@hillsdale.edu, containing the subject line "CODA Performance Application," include a completed application form, proposed conference program, links to audio recording(s) in MP3 format or as attached MP3 files, and concert programs associated with the recording(s).
